Spencer Milo
Keynote Speaker

Spencer Milo is a medically retired U.S. Army combat Veteran and Purple Heart recipient, who served in both OIF/OEF. He is now the Director of Veteran Programs, Communication and Development for the Marcus Institute for Brain Health, a medical institute focused on serving Military Veterans and retired athletes with primarily mild to moderate brain injuries, post-traumatic stress, depression and anxiety. Prior to that, he served as an Area Manager for Hire Heroes USA for three and a half years. Spencer is a passionate advocate and spokesman for Veterans and Veterans' issues. He is on the Board of Trustees for the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund, is an Honorary Co-Chair, The George W. Bush Institute's Military Service Initiative (MSI), and member of WCC's Board of Directors. He has a bachelor's degree in communications from the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs and he currently resides in Castle Rock, Colorado with his wife, two children and his two dogs.
